

Storyboard

By Matthew Bojanowski

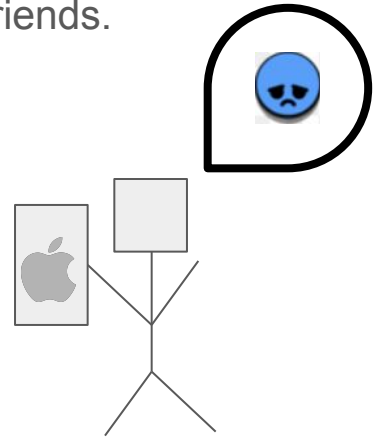

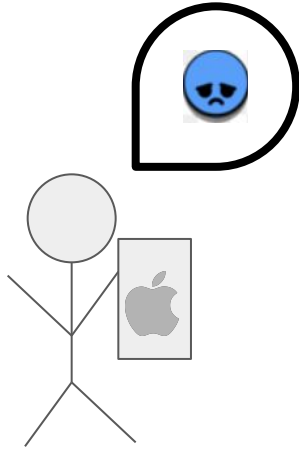

Frame 1

This is Jack and Jill. They are always on their phones. They don't go outside and meet new people, they just stay at home on their phones. Currently, neither of them know that the other person exists.

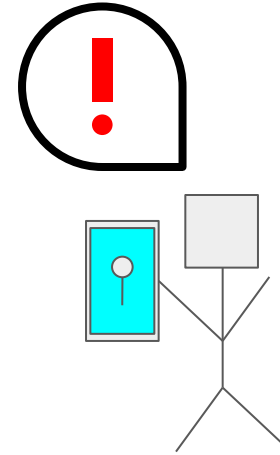

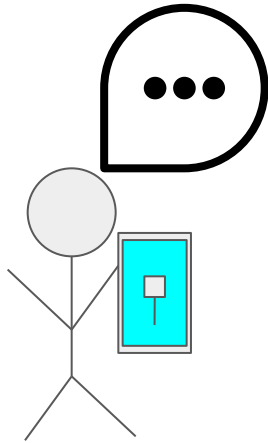

Frame 2

Jack and Jill are both sad. They both are lonely. They want friends to talk to and have fun with, but they are too shy and non-social to go out and make friends.

Frame 3

Jack and Jill decide to use our app.
They download it. After making their accounts, they find each others profiles. Jack chooses to start a conversation with Jill and she notices.

Frame 4

Jack and Jill talk to each other. After a while, they decide to become friends.

